

Contact: Christopher D. Stammer
President & CEO, Voluminant
(703) 395-0079
info@voluminant.com

FOR RELEASE ON JULY 19, 2007

VOLUMINANT AWARDED GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT

WASHINGTON – Voluminant, an Arlington, Virginia-based company that helps organizations improve performance through strategy, technology and business process consulting, and by designing custom interactive training programs, has been awarded a U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) schedule contract.

The contract enables Voluminant to supply federal government agencies with video and film production services in an expedited manner and at a negotiated rate.

“This represents a big step forward for Voluminant,” said Christopher Stammer, CEO of Voluminant. “We are pleased to be able to provide federal customers access to cutting-edge creative and technical video production services they need to reach their goals.”

Voluminant’s GSA schedule contract number is GS-07F-0469T. The contract includes all services to produce a hard-hitting production – from brainstorm and storyboard to DVD menu navigation and final packaging.

“This contract enables Voluminant to be able to produce videos around a specific federal customers’ operational goal, message or training need,” said Stammer. “While making the message stick by taking the inventive approach for which Voluminant is known.”

Voluminant has extensive experience producing videos for informational, entertainment and training purposes for a host of industry-leading clients including U.S. Foodservice, Linens of the Week, an NHL hockey team, FoodPRO, and Clyde’s Restaurant Group.

About Voluminant

Voluminant helps companies leverage their resources to reduce operating costs and improve products, service or safety. Voluminant’s training practice is interactive multimedia driven, making use of virtual story-based learning experiences, gaming and simulations. For more information on Voluminant’s addition to the GSA Schedule, please contact Christopher Stammer at (703) 395-0079 or via E-mail at cstammer@voluminant.com.

###

VOLUMINANT
Achieve Business Singularity™.
P.O. Box 100754
Arlington, VA 22210
(703) 395-0079